

KING OF ITALY
GREETSPERRY,
THANKS NATION

Victor Emmanuel Grateful to the United States for Earthquake Aid.

ROME, Jan. 14.—King Victor Emmanuel received Rear-Admiral Sperry in private audience at the Quirinal Palace to-day. The King conversed in English for more than half an hour regarding the voyage of the fleet, which he regarded as a most remarkable achievement. He had followed its movements even to details.
The King expressed his deep appreciation for what America had done for Italy in sympathy and relief for those who had suffered in the earthquake.
The Italian people would never forget the unanimous manifestation of the American Government and the American nation down to the humblest citizens. His Majesty alluded to the energy and ability shown by Mr. Cresson, the American Ambassador, in promptly sending succor to the spot.

Rear-Admiral Sperry after the private audience presented his staff to the King, composed of Commander Albert W. Grant, Paymaster Samuel McGowan, Lieut.-Commander Simon P. Ful-lender and Lieut. Daniel W. Wurts-baugh. The King talked with each one and expressed his pleasure at being able to meet them.

MRS. SAGE TO MOVE.

Mrs. Russell Sage is about to move from her residence at No. 822 Fifth avenue, opposite St. Patrick's Cathedral, to the house which she bought a year ago, at No. 64 Fifth avenue, near the Collegiate Church. This was formerly the property of Mrs. William V. Draper, of Fishkill, and the price paid for it was $100,000. Just above it is the old Ogden Goebel residence. The present Sage home, which is a Columbia College leasehold, was taken by Russell Sage when his old residence near Fort-second street, began to feel the encroachments of business.

"GUESS"

Many inquiries were received at The World office yesterday for further information about the new game "GUESS"—the winter's evening pastime that promises to eclipse any and all other indoor games in human interest, wholesomeness and educational merit.

For the benefit of those who did not see yesterday's announcement, printed in both Morning and Evening World, the rules of the game "GUESS" are reprinted:

RULES:

Provide each contestant with a copy of The World Almanac and Encyclopedia for 1909, of which 200,000 copies have been distributed during the last two weeks. In this "Wonderful Book About Wonderful Things" you will find more than 15,000 facts and figures bearing on names, dates, persons, places, weights, measures, records, areas, populations, exports, imports, duties, immigration, politics, and, in fact, nearly everything under the sun that one ought to know.

Now, let everybody place their copy of The World Almanac for 1909 before them, closed, of course, and:

FIRST—Let each contestant write a short essay upon the subject in question, limited in length to about 200 words. Or:

SECOND—Assign one of the party as QUESTIONER, who will ask 50 or 100 questions the answers of which will, of course, be found in The World Almanac. Score should be kept and prizes awarded according to the best results made.

If you give a "GUESS" party (as you should), allow each guest to keep his or her copy of The World Almanac & Encyclopedia for 1909 as a souvenir of the occasion. You may rest assured it will be highly appreciated—and it's cost is slight.

Bear in mind that this greatest Ready Reference Book ever printed is an 880-page volume. It presents information about nearly everything one wants to know in such an easy-to-find style that a school boy could find the fact or figure he seeks at but a moment's notice by moonlight.

P. S.—Invitations are out for a "GUESS" party up at the "JARR FAMILY'S" house. You know the Jarrs are friends of Roy McCardell. It's going to be a lively affair. Watch Mr. McCardell's daily stories in the Evening World for further particulars.
